Despite his age, Pleasant decided to serve in the Union Army in Company F of the 3rd Tennessee Infantry. According to the transcription project for the Adjutant General's report (see sources), however, he was a private, enlisting 10 February 1862 (mustered the same day) at age 52 and deserted 17 August 1862; Henry Barkstill Jones deserted the same day. These records are often incomplete, and deserters many times returned with little to no penalty.

The desertion date corresponds to the occupation of Cumberland Gap but is a little earlier than when the Union was forced to abandon it; desertion at that time was extremely common. Henry's wife was seven months pregnant at the time with Rufe. In fact, Rufe's birthday, October 20, suggests that Henry did not know
